

Dear Colleagues,

Warm greetings from the new World President Kwang Soo Lee of the Korean National Committee to all the IAA/AIAP Executive and National Committee members through out the world.

From the bottom of my heart, I Thank you all for having faith in me and appointing me to this meaningful job.

Today, I would like to celebrate with you all 'the 2023 World Art Day', and I send you a great appreciation for all your support for this day to become a wonderful day for every single artist all around the world!

Do believe that I am extremely concerned about AIAP/IAA and that I will put all my efforts in supplementing future-oriented projects for a continued growth and prosperity. Of course, I will keep you informed when those projects are ready.

I will sincerely do everything I can and all my best to see AIAP/IAA take further steps out to the world.

Best wishes to you all,
and Happy World Art Day!

Sincerely,

Kwang Soo Lee
World President
